Sydney Morning Herald Online Forum on Australian Expats

Dear overseas Australians and friends,

The Sydney Morning Herald online version of Monday 13 January 2003 carries an article by Harry Heidelberg entitled "What to make of the Australian Diaspora". Use the link below to read Harry's thoughts:

<http://www.smh.com.au/articles/2003/01/13/1041990218079.html>

We encourage all overseas Australians reading this and their friends, relatives and others interested to put their views forward in response to Harry's article, on the special "Have your say" page on the SMH website:

<http://www.smh.com.au/yoursay2/2003/01/13/index.html>

Please take this opportunity to let more Australians in Australia hear the voices of the 860,000 Australians overseas!

The Southern Cross Group website carries more information on many of the issues Harry touches upon in his article, in particular overseas voting rights.

Best regards,

The Southern Cross Group Committee
