

Southern Cross Group E-Bulletin to Members

4 November 2002

New Bali Information Page

Dear Southern Cross Group Friends,

In response to the growing number of queries we are receiving from expatriate Australians around the world following events in Bali on 12 October 2002, we have set up a new Bali Information Page on the Southern Cross Group website:

<http://www.southern-cross-group.org/general/bali.html>

On this page, we have attempted to put together information as a resource for overseas Australians following the tragedy:

- forthcoming fundraisers to be held overseas;
- how to light an online candle;

- how to make a donation and the options available;
- reports on memorial services;
- information on where to sign a condolence book.

If you have news of a forthcoming event or a report on a service or fundraiser which has taken place in your local expatriate community which we have not heard about yet, please e-mail us at info@southern-cross-group.org so that we can publish it for the benefit of other overseas Australians.

Some people have also told us that they cannot get to an Embassy or Consulate to sign a condolence book but would still like to express their condolences. We have therefore set up a special Condolence Message Page:

<http://www.southern-cross-group.org/general/condolence.html>

We invite you and/or your local expatriate Australian club or group to send us your condolence message in the form of an e-mail, and we will pass it on to the relevant Australian consular authorities. We will also publish all condolences on our Condolence Message Page, unless you ask us not to publish your message. E-mails should be sent to info@southern-cross-group.org.

Best regards,

The Southern Cross Group Committee
