Dear Ms Carrick,

Thank you for your reply. You have been most helpful. I guess my compatriot was misinformed.

I, and many of my compatriots, plan to stay in Europe for some time, and we are very much interested to follow any developments which may occur. Do you have some idea how we could be informed of developments, even though it sounds like there will be none for some time?

Again I thank you very much for taking to time to reply to me.

Yours sincerely,
Angela Ryan
