

Contents

INTRODUCTION

- 9 COMING AND GOING IN THE GLOBAL VILLAGE
Julianne Schultz considers the Australian face of globalisation

ESSAY

- 29 GLOBALISATION, KIMBERLEY STYLE
Melissa Lucashenko travels down the old corrugation road

CAESURA

- 37 Brian Castro meditates on the meaning of belonging

BEYOND EXILE

- 87 Christine Forzi follows her forebears to another land

THE FACE OF BRISBANE

- 129 Karen Donnelly, Raimond de Weerd and Tony Nott capture the emerging face of Brisbane

A LONG WAY BACK — REFLECTIONS OF A GENEALOGICAL TOURIST

- 181 Anna Haeblich discovers the limits of an ancestral homeland

THE THIRD AND FOURTH COUNTRIES

- 239 Catherine Cole imagines belonging somewhere else

ITHACA: HOME

- 247 Nigel Krauth travels to Ithaca, and finds Australians

REVIEW

- 141 TARNISHED DREAMS OF NEW BEGINNINGS
Daniel Flitton reviews the limits of globalisation

- 152 INTO SELF-IMPOSED EXILE
Fiona Paisley reflects on the long history of cosmopolitanism

- 211 UNDER THE GLOBAL OLIVE TREE
Ghassan Hage retraces the Lebanese diaspora

POLICY

- 49 CALLING AUSTRALIA HOME
Graeme Hugo maps the scale of the Australian diaspora

- 68 IMAGINING AN INTERNATIONAL AUSTRALIA
Macgregor Duncan, Andrew Leigh, David Madden, Peter Tynan consider how different a truly international Australia might be

COMMUNITY DESPITE GEOGRAPHY

- 100 Anne MacGregor reflects on the challenges of creating a virtual lobby

WOMEN WHO HAVE AND HAVE NOT

- 157 Georgina Costello considers the shocking plight of trafficked women

MEMOIR

- 13 THE GREEK IN ME
Tony Maniati confronts the limits of national identity

- 57 ANTIPODEANS IN AMERICA: A CAUTIONARY TALE
Patrick McCaughey cautions about grand ambitions in another country

- 74 REFLECTION
Jane Camens finds she needs the mirror only compatriots can provide

- 75 BEATING THE TYRANT DISTANCE
Peter C. Doherty suggests rules for returning expatriates

- 107 NOT A HOMECOMING
Creed C. O'Hanlon returns to Sydney's northern beaches

- 118 PRODIGAL DAUGHTER
Marian Edmunds finds the journey home is not as easy as she hoped

SENSUAL DEGREES OF SEPARATION

- 119 Jay Verney provides new insight into what makes Queenslanders different

- 175 TWO WIVES IN KRAKOW AND A HOUSE IN TREPTOW
Peter Skrzynecki considers an offer to return to Europe

- 203 THE GIFT OF TONGUES
Susan Varga is surprised by the joy of relearning Hungarian

- 223 AT HOME IN BOTH PLACES
Desmond O'Grady reflects on a life divided between Australia and Italy

- 236 LIKE MOTHER, LIKE SON
Gillian Bouras considers the way her sons have adapted to her emigration

SMALL STORIES OF THE PLANET

- 238 Sudip Sen marvels at the reality of diversity

FICTION

- 165 INVISIBLE MOON
Meera Atkinson goes beyond homesickness

- 194 DINNER WITH MY BROTHER
Natasha Cho reflects on the power of names

- 195 REFUGE
Thomas Shapcott reflects on the power of language

- 253 A BOAT CALLED BROTHERLY LOVE
Arnold Zable retraces a voyage of discovery

POEMS

- 106 HOME FROM BERLIN
Peter Skrzynecki

- 174 UNDER THE BRANDENBURG GATE
Peter Skrzynecki