Australian and New Zealand communities will not quickly forget the effects of October 12 and the grief for the 200 plus victims of the Bali bombings.

ANZCC is working with 'Aussie in London' and Australia House to raise more than £10 000 at a charity auction on 7 November, for not only those directly affected, but for organisations such as the Australian Red Cross who have worked diligently in helping the recovery efforts. The cocktail reception hosted by Clive James, will feature both a silent and main auction under the direction of a well-known auctioneer house, and together with key Australian and New Zealand political figures and personalities who are based in London, will give you the opportunity to also contribute to these groups.

'Aussie in London' is also urgently seeking donations of items to auction at the event, and in some cases, they may have already approached you directly. This may be an opportunity for you to contribute to the charity, if you are unable to attend next Thursday. Examples of pieces already donated include:

Cricket bat signed by the 2001 Australian Ashes team
Signed Ian Thorpe merchandise
Ken Done Print
Signed soccer boots and shorts from Harry Kool (Leeds United)
Holidays and more...
To donate items, contact Simon Larcey from Aussie in London on 020 7731 8170 before Monday, 4 November.

If you do however wish to attend the charity auction, please reply to alexandra.reynolds@anzcc.org.uk with your:

- Full name (and those of your guests)
- Company name

- Contact email address; and
- Phone number

(for Australia House security purposes) by Monday, 4 November 2002. We apologise for the short notice of this event but look forward to you joining us.
