Calling new Aussies

Are you in Britain? Do you qualify to apply for Australian citizenship under the new Australian Citizenship Act 2007?

If so, Australian expat campaigners Southern Cross Group (SCG) invite you to come along and be part of a mass group of applicants who will lodge their papers together as the new rules kick in.

If you can have all your supporting documentation organised by that date, you're invited to join the SCG group who are planning to go into Australia House at the Strand on July 2 from 9am. For more information, email eric@southern-cross-group.org.
