Reciprocal scheme

WITH reference to the article on the proposed changes to the British Working Holiday Maker scheme (The Advertiser, 1/2/02), this is a scheme that is described as inflexible and making it difficult for the travellers of this nature. Yes, it has reduced the amount of time that can be spent in the country from two years to one, but this is to bring it in line with the reciprocal version of travelling in Australia by an English person on the same scheme.
